CRESCENZO TO SPEAK AT ACT INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Long Beach, New York - July 8, 2008 - As one of the nation's leading transit and vanpool industry insurers, Lancer Insurance Company is proud to attend the 2008 Association for Commuter Transportation's (ACT) International Conference.

The conference will be held August 24-27 at the InterContinental Buckhead in Atlanta, Georgia. Bob Crescenzo, Lancer's Vice President of Safety and Loss Control, will present "Safety and Risk Management" on Sunday, August 24th from 1:45 p.m. - 3:15 p.m. during the conference's Vanpool Summit. Attendees are invited to join him at the largest and most comprehensive learning experience for the commuter vanpool industry.

Lancer Insurance Company is licensed in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. The company has consistently received an A- Excellent rating from the A.M. Best Company, known worldwide as the benchmark for assessing insurer's financial strength. Lancer's Passenger Transportation division is the oldest and largest of the company's core businesses, making it the nation's leading passenger transportation specialty insurer.
