HUDSON VALLEY RAP ON D.C. WHITE AGENCY CALENDAR

Long Beach, New York - September 18, 2009 - Join D.C. White Agency at this year's Hudson Valley Regional Awareness Program (RAP) to be held October 29, 2009 at the Doubletree Hotel in Tarrytown, NY.

D.C. White Agency's exhibit will proudly feature its broad array of commercial auto coverages designed specifically for local and intermediate trucks, delivery vans, tow trucks, dump trucks, contractors' vehicles, household movers and most other classes of commercial auto, as well as garage coverages for used car dealers, repair shops, tire sale shops, service stations, parking lots and garages and roadside repair and service businesses.

The D.C. White Agency, a proud supporter of the regional insurance community and the Professional Insurance Agents (PIA), is once again a RAP Event Host. The Hudson Valley RAP annually draws hundreds of insurance professionals from across the Hudson Valley Region for an outstanding day of networking opportunities and educational sessions. The central location allows insurance professionals from both sides of the Hudson River to come together and discuss the issues that affect their businesses, as well as those of their clients.

Acquired by the Lancer Insurance Group in 1996, the D.C. White Agency focuses on small to mid-sized commercial auto business in New York and New Jersey. Garage Dealers, Garage Non Dealer and Dealer and Transporter Plate coverages are also offered in the State of New York. Garage Non Dealer coverages are available through Lawrence Excess through New Jersey approved surplus lines insurers.
